

- Intestinal/oropharyngeal
  - Fever, septicemia for both
  - In oropharyngeal, lymphadenopathy, throat pain, ulcers will occur
  - Death follows

TREATMENT

- Vaccine exists—only for military use
- Standard antibiotics can treat cutaneous anthrax (penicillin, doxycycline, and ciprofloxacin)
- Intravenous antibiotics are needed for pulmonary anthrax

